From: The Administration of Providence Christian College ~ Ontario, California

Date: February 11, 2008
Re: Voluntary agreement with the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, State of California

The purpose of this memo is to comply with an order from the Department of Consumer Affairs to notify all current and prospective students that, in light of the inoperative state of the Bureau for Private and Postsecondary and Vocational Education (BPPVE) effective 7/1/2007, Providence Christian College has entered into a voluntary agreement with the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs for the purpose of ensuring continued student protection.

This voluntary agreement applies retroactively to July 1, 2007 and requires Providence Christian College to comply with California's statutes, rules, and regulations pertaining to private postsecondary educational institutions or pertaining to non-WASC regionally accredited institutions as defined in Section 94740.5 of the Education Code, as it existed on June 30, 2007, in effect as of the close of business that day. The purpose of the agreement is to provide Providence Christian College with a legal method by which it may comply with applicable federal statutes, rules and regulations from July 1, 2007, to January 31, 2008, inclusive, and demonstrate to the United States Department of Education the legal authorization to operate schools under California law from July 1, 2007, to January 1, 2009, inclusive.

A list of schools that have entered into voluntary agreements with the Director will be posted on the former Bureau's web site at www.bbpve.ca.gov. A copy of the enacted legislation is available, in its entirety, on the Legislative Counsel's web site at www.leginfo.ca.gov/billinfo.html. Questions can be directed to the Department of Consumer Affairs, STRF, P.O. Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA 95798 or BPPVE@dca.ca.gov.

Questions for the college can also be directed to Dawn Dirksen ~ Dirksen@providencecc.net or 909-673-8800.
