

Taking Courses at Providence

Providence Christian College is making courses available to people in the community who are non-matriculated students, ie. not regular students at the college. Members of the community may register to

- 1) Audit—$ 100/course. Auditors may purchase textbooks and materials, sit in on the class, and listen to lectures. Participation in the class discussion and activities is at the discretion of the professor.
- 2) Continuing Education Credit (CEU) — $150/credit hour. These units may satisfy professional development requirements of employers. Students must purchase textbooks and materials, participate in the class, and complete assignments in order to receive CEU's. Providence Christian College will provide certification that students have completed the course requirements. These credits will not transfer to other institutions as regular college credit.
- 3) Regular college credit— $730/credit hour. Students must purchase textbooks and materials, participate in the class, and complete assignments in order to receive college credit for the course work.
