

Summer Reading Assignment Freshmen

Let's Get This Education Started

...

As part of Student Orientation, each student is required to read one book during the summer. This book is a foundational book on the Christian college experience, and it also introduces you to our Christian perspective on education. Along with reading the book you are asked to write a few pages reflecting on the book. This assignment is due during SOAR (student orientation and retreat) on August 25-28.

The Book

Plantinga, Cornelius, Jr. Engaging God's World: A Christian Vision of Faith, Learning, and Living.
Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans Publishing Co.,
2002. ISBN 0-8028-3981-9

To order this book from the on-line college bookstore ...

Go to www.providencechristianbookstore.com

Enter email address or student ID # as "Student ID"

Enter name

Drop down "Semester" to find "Summer 2007"

Click "Enter"

Select course "Freshmen Summer Reading"

Click "Continue to your Booklist"

Accept Engaging God's World

Proceed to check-out and complete the Shipping Information

 you will need to have a credit card available.

You can also order the book elsewhere using the book information above.

The Assignment

1. Read the book
 2. Write a 1-2 page reflective essay on Providence's motto: "Firmly Grounded, Fully Engaged." Refer specifically to the book Engaging God's World at least three times.
- OR
2. Choose 3 questions from the Appendix "Talking Points" questions from chapters 2 - 4, and write a ½ page reflective answer to each of them.

