Providence Christian College Application for Admission

Applicants to Providence Christian College will be considered for admission after the college receives the following:

1. A signed, and completed, Providence Christian College Application for Admission form.
2. A non-refundable $25 application fee (if applying after the priority application deadline of December 31st).
3. An official, signed, high school or home schooling association final transcript (or an academic portfolio and verification that a high school home schooling program has been completed) or results from the General Educational Development Examination (GED), or the California High School Proficiency Exam (CHSPE).
4. Official transcripts from any and all college(s) attended.
5. A copy of the ACT or SAT I test results (Providence does not score the essay portion of the new SAT).
6. A copy of the exam scores from any AP, IB, or CLEP courses.
7. A completed reference form from one's home church, either from the pastor, youth pastor, or an elder.
8. Personal faith statement essay

An author once summarized his belief in Christianity by stating that his faith was like believing in the existence of the sun. That though he could not see the sun, its light was something that caused everything else in his life to become visible.

Explain how this idea applies to your own life, using personal examples to support your essay. Requirements: 1 ½ to 2 pages in length, double-space, 1-inch margins, and size 12 font (the goal of this essay is to give a statement of your personal faith and to explain why you desire to attend a Christ centered college).

* All documents and supporting data required for admission become the property of Providence Christian College and will not be returned to the applicant.

Providence Christian College reserves the right to deny admissions to any student who the Admissions Committee feels would be a detriment to the college's resources and/or danger to the overall college Community.

The Providence Perspective

The following has been adopted by Providence Christian College so that, as part of the college community, we may clearly reflect the mission of our Lord as it relates to higher Christian education. Read over our vision and purpose, our general expectations of campus life, and The Apostles' Creed. In order to live as a unified community of faith, we ask each student to agree with this foundational statement on college life.

Our vision and purpose. At Providence Christian College we gladly confess and seek to practice the Biblical teaching that all of life must be lived under the rule of Christ. Therefore, the instruction, attitudes and lifestyles of everyone at Providence must clearly express this truth. There are three parts to our commitment to our Lord's teaching. First, in our lifestyle, the college community is to obey God's Word. We are to demonstrate a repentant, redeemed heart and life. All of us are to respect one another as Christians, and to faithfully care for God's creation.

Secondly, at Providence, we understand the Bible as the infallible, inerrant Word of God. Doctrinally, we affirm the scriptural interpretation as summarized by the Reformed Confessions: the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, the Canons of Dort, and the Westminster Confession and Catechisms. We must each seek to know in our hearts and minds that God created all things, how Christ redeemed us out of the fallen human race by His grace, and what this means as we live a life of gratitude in our world.

Finally, our goal at Providence is to train students to understand the unity and diversity of the various parts of God's creation from the perspective of God's Word. A Providence education will help students engage and transform our culture for Jesus Christ. By God's grace our studies will enable students to excellently prepare for and carry out their God-given tasks and responsibilities in our contemporary society so that we can make a profound difference in our world. We will seek to promote the claims of Christ over all of life.

Campus Life. Since Providence Christian College unashamedly is a Christian college, all of life, inside and outside of the classroom, is to be lived for the glory of God, in obedience to His Word, the Bible, and in gratitude for our salvation in Jesus Christ. Students must make it their goal to understand the Bible's teachings concerning holiness, love of God and others, godliness, and to increasingly live in accord with these teachings. They, along with the rest of the college community, must demonstrate personal moral integrity in all the areas of their lives and work as part of that community.

This means, in part, that all of the students have both the privilege and responsibility to be a part of the Christian community that is being developed at the college. There are many opportunities for both personal and spiritual growth and development as we fellowship with other Christians. Being a part of the community at Providence Christian College means that we all are accountable first to the Lord, and then also to one another as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Students are encouraged to demonstrate their genuine love for the Lord by engaging in personal as well as group devotions. All are expected to worship regularly at a local church that is faithful to the Scriptures, and to become an active participant in the life of that church. Chapel is a vital part of life on this campus, and therefore students, along with the rest of the college community, are expected to attend chapel regularly.

When students have problems regarding another individual or have legitimate complaints regarding some part of the activity of the college, they should seek to solve them with the appropriate people by following the Biblical admonition (Matthew 5 and 18) to go to the offending or offended person before taking the matter to a higher authority. Students have the right of appeal even to the Board of Directors, but only after seeking to rectify the situation with fellow students, professors, and/or the appropriate administrators.

The college administration reserves the right to suspend or dismiss any student whose conduct or attitudes are unworthy of the standards of Providence Christian College. A student who is dismissed from the college must wait at least one semester following the semester of the dismissal before reapplying for admission.

Providence Christian College Application for Admission

A student who professes to be a Christian believes the affirmations found in the Apostles' Creed.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father, almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary,
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead and was buried;
he descended to hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

* that is, the true Christian church of all times and all places
